Our synagogue

Our synagogue, the Kehilas Ja'kow, was founded 120 years ago by refugees from Eastern-Europe. The so called 'Ost-Yiden' brought a special atmosphere with them and this atmosphere could still be felt when visiting the "Shtiebl" today. The same warm and kind atmosphere will welcome you. Our synagogue is open during all services for men and women. Refreshment are always available. Dayan mr drs R. Evers is leading the synagogue spiritually for the last decades and is the Halachic authority.

The Greater Eruv of Amsterdam

Amsterdam and Amstelveen have an Eruv initiated by the Chief Rabbinate of Amsterdam. Generally the Eruv is ok and one can carry on Shabbat, to check the Eruv and its Area/ borders go to www.nihs.nl or call the 'Eruv Hotline' at +31-(0)6-16552687 or ask Dayan R. Evers in our synagogue.

Kashrut information

Because kosher production in the Netherlands is limited, the Dutch Chief-rabbinate yearly publishes a list with products which can be purchased in the regular supermarkets with no kosher-sign or hechsher on it. The products are checked on its ingredients and its production by the Chief Rabbinate. The list can be found on www.nik.nl >'English' >'Eating Kosher' >'Kashrutlist Netherlands'.

Restaurants - general

All restaurants and butcher serve/sell glatt kosher meat. They are under strict joint Amsterdam Ashkenazi & Sephardi rabbinical supervision and meet the highest standards of kashruth. Bread is under joint Amsterdam Ashkenazi & Sephardi or The Sinai-rabbinate (Jewish Hospital – Neshomme Bakery) supervision.
